

GILES, John D., a member of the General Board of Y. M. M. I. A. since 1928, was born Aug. 1, 1883, a son of Henry E. Giles and Catherine Evans.

He studied at the Brigham Young University, and after working in the business office of the Desert News for five years established an advertising agency, the first in Salt Lake City. He was for fifteen years superintendent of the Y. M. M. I. A. in the Ensign Stake. He helped to establish the fathers and sons outings and the "Mr. Men's movement. He has devoted the past eighteen years to boy scout work and is chairman of the organization committee of the Salt Lake Boy Scout Council. He is executive secretary of the Utah Pioneer Trails and Landmarks Association and secretary of the Oregon Trail Association. He has photographed scenes along nearly all of the Mormon Pioneer Route from Nauvoo to Salt Lake City, and gathered history for the erection of a large number of monuments erected along historic trails and sites connected with the history of the Church and the development of the Western States. He is the author of a number of magazine articles relating to these subjects. LDS Bio9 Ency 4:238-9
